HOW MUCH IS 25 EUROS WORTH?

WRITTEN BY: MR. FLADD

As much as we moan about the fact that our kids go to the internet for almost all their research, there is a reason for it - it works. (Usually)

Here are a few incredibly useful websites that I use more-or-less constantly to look up fast and accurate information on the fly. They may be useful to you at home as you try to field bizarre questions during the avoiding-homework-through-strange-questions-hour:

<http://www.acronymfinder.com/>

I use this tool three or four times a week when I read a cryptic abbreviation or acronym. The only time it has failed me is when somebody used the abbreviation, "BMD" on a blog. As it turns out, she was referring to "Baby-Mamma Drama", not Ballistic Missile Defense. <http://anywho.com>

This is the fastest way I know to look up a telephone number. (The one downside - as far as I know, it only looks up landlines, not cell phone .

The CIA World Factbook (<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/index.html>)

This will give you fast and accurate world-almanac-type information on any country. If you need to know the main export of Swaziland, for instance, this is the site for you.

(Asbestos, by the way. Ick!)

XE - The Universal Currency Converter (<http://www.xe.com/ucc/>)

How much is 25 Euros worth?

About $45.

Is it true that inmates in the Cook County Correctional Facility live a life of luxury at taxpayer expense?

According to the email that your uncle forwarded to you, they do.

Do they really? No.

Snopes.com (<http://www.snopes.com>) is the best place to check out urban legends and rumors that you or the kids in your class may have heard.

It's 1879 and grasshoppers have eaten the Ingalls' crops. Mary has gone blind and the family faces starvation. Suddenly Pa gets offered a job that pays $100 a month!

Your child interrupts you as you turn the page and want to know if a hundred dollars was a lot of money back then.

You don't panic or ask them what THEY think; you look it up on the Westegg Inflation Calculator (<http://www.westegg.com/inflation/>)

As it turns out, not really, but it was better than starving.

($2,125.05, if you were wondering.)

HELPING DEERFIELD HOUSEHOLDS

Approximately fifty local families use food stamps and benefit from the Deerfield Food Pantry services. These families need our help. Food stamps can be used only to buy food and no other products at the grocery stores. The Deerfield Food Pantry provides personal care items only sporadically - depending on when they receive such inventory.

My name is Chelsea True I am a senior at Concord High School and this is a portion of Girl Scout Gold Award. This award is equivalent to the Boy Scouts' Eagle Award; it is my mission to make sure all residents of our town are able to have the personal care items they need.

Girl Scout Registration is Tuesday September 9th from 5:30 to 7:00 in the DCS Cafeteria. Join us to learn more about what is new, see your old friends and make some new ones and try some new things. Bring a parent and your $10 registration fee. Call Susan with any question 765-0595
