

SECTION IX: APPEALS PROCESS

A teacher may meet with the principal to attempt a mutual agreement. If that cannot occur, then the issue may go before the Professional Development Committee for resolution. Should that step be unsuccessful, then the question would be brought before the Superintendent. See Appendix IV.